We have reproduced from an old exchange the following beautiful poem. The National Intelligencer once said of it: "Those who have heard this touching effusion recited by the tragedian, Mr. Forrest, will never forget either the pathos with which he renders it, or his simple, affecting introduction to it. Mr. Forrest thinks the writer was the brother of the poet Southey."—Semi-Weekly Clarion.

THE IDIOT BOY.

It had pleased God to form poor Ned A thing of idiot mind,
Yet to the poor man's boy
God had not been unkind.

Old Sarah loved her helpless child Whom helplessness made dear,
And life was everything to her,
Who knew no hope nor fear.

She knew his wants, she understood Each half-articulate cry;
For he was everything to her,
And she to him was all.

And so for many a year they lived, Nor knew a wish beside,
But age at length on Sarah came,
And she fell sick and died.

He tried in vain to 'wake her,
He called her 'o'er and 'o'er;
They told him she was dead—the words
To him no import bore.

They closed her eyes and shrouded her, While he stood wondering by,
And when they bore her to the grave,
He followed silently.

They laid her in the narrow house,
And sang the funeral dirge,
And when the mournful train dispersed,
He loitered by the grave.

The rabble boys that used to jeer Where'er they saw poor Ned, Now stood and watch'd him at the grave,
And not a word was said.

They came and went and came again,
And night at last drew on;
Yet still he lingered at the place Till every one had gone.

And when he found himself alone He quick removed the clay,
And raised the coffin in his arms And bore it swift away.

Straight went he to his mother's cot,
And laid it on the floor;
And with the eagerness of joy
He barred the cottage door.

At once he placed his mother's corpse Upright within her chair;
And then he heaped the hearth and blew
The kindling fire with care.

She now was in the wretched chair,
It was her wonted place,
And bright the fire blazed and flashed, Reflected from her face.

Then bending down he'd feel her hands,
And see her face behold;
Why, mother, do you look so pale—
And why are you so cold!

And when the neighbors on next morn Had forced the cottage door, Old Sarah's corpse was in the chair,
And Ned was on the floor.

It had pleased God from this poor boy,
His only friend to call;
Yet God was not unkind to him,
For death restored him all!

PRESIDENT GRANT AND THE COLORED PEOPLE.

Frederick Douglass, the colored orator and writer, has again demonstrated his ability as a leader by his last letter addressed, "To the Colored People of the United States," wherein he takes issue with the followers of Mr. Greeley regarding their assertion that General Grant is not a friend of the colored race.

Mr. Douglass, after stating that the Greeleyites "are declaring that the President is not a friend of the race," says: "I must declare that President Grant's course, from the beginning of the war to the present time, is without a word or deed to justify such an assertion."

General Grant, finding that his lines contained large numbers of colored men, women and children, issued an order, November 11, 1862, on his own authority, and before the Emancipation Proclamation, an order providing for the safety and comfort, appointing an officer to look after interests, set the able-bodied at work, and care for and feed all, but especially the aged, infirm, and sick, and ordering ration and clothing issued to them.

Mr. Douglass fitly says: "Here was the full germ of the Freedmen's Bureau apparent in the orders of General Grant before the emancipation proclamation, not as a theory but a practical solution of the slavery question, and in the interest of the welfare of all concerned." If he thinks General Grant was not a friend of his race, could he find time in all the busy scenes about him to think out this great problem, which then was engaging close thought on the part of those whose lives had been devoted to the accomplishment of abolishing slavery? His points with a hearty pride to the order of General Grant in the spring of 1863, after the Government had decided to organize colored troops, in which he says: "All commanders will exert themselves, * * * not only in organizing colored regiments and rendering them efficient, but also in removing prejudice against them;" and adds, "Was this opposing the organization of these troops?"

Referring to extracts from various letters and speeches of the President he quotes from the message to Congress announcing the ratification of the fifteenth amendment, "I call the attention of the newly-enfranchised race to the importance of striving to make themselves worthy of this new privilege."

Mr. Douglass, making inquiries regarding federal appointments, found that no record was kept of color, but he finds colored men in all departments, of the civil service, from foreign ministers to messengers, according to intelligence and character of applicants.

He urges upon the attention of the colored people the firm enforcement of the Kuklux law, which has done so much to bring peace and safety to the colored man in those localities where that dreaded organization held control. And stating that he had entered on a full examination of the record of General Grant as a friend of the colored race, says, "I closed the inquiry, perfectly satisfied that with General Grant at the head of the country we are assured not only of our rights but our privileges."

He states his personal relations with the President to be kindly and cordial, and believes that few men can equal him in stating facts with greater clearness or fluency and counts the idea advanced by his enemies, that being a man of few words, he is also a man of few ideas.

He disposes of the story that General Grant did not ask him to dine with him on the return from San Domingo by explaining that only the members of the Commission provided for by resolution of Congress were invited, and he was not of the number, having gone to the island only as an invited guest. He closes with the following per-oration, which we submit in full, as a worthy specimen of Mr. Douglass' eloquent and forcible style of writing.

"Wherever else there may be room for doubt and uncertainty there is nothing of the kind with Ulysses Grant as our candidate.

"U. S. Grant and Henry Wilson, the one from the West and the other from the East—the soldier and the Senator—are men in whom we may confide.

"We can no more array ourselves against these candidates than we resume our chains or insult our mothers.

"We are allied to the Republican party by every honorable sentiment of the human soul.

"To vote for Messrs. Greeley and Brown would justly invite to our heads the contempt and scorn of honest men.

"We should not only brand ourselves as political knaves and as political fools.

"The key-note of the whole Greeley movement was sounded by James R. Doolittle, chairman of the convention that nominated Mr. Greeley. He announced as one of the objects the overthrow of negro supremacy. Can any negro be so blind as not to see the meaning of this?

"Such is the record of the wise statesman for who you cast your first ballot for President; and for no other than him can you trust your second. Rally, then, to his support with that resistless spirit in which you fought for your liberties, and with the same exultant hope in which you made General Grant your first President with your votes in 1868."

"True words, honest words, from a man too great to be influenced by any petty consideration, and who writes only after a long, careful inquiry.

Let those who believe the black man would be protected and educated, or that the strong arm of law would be interposed in his behalf in case the Democratic nomination should be elected, read carefully our two brief synopses of Mr. Douglass' letter, and then ask themselves if it is probable that the men who inaugurated and carried on the rebellion would still permit the colored man to enjoy the greatest of all the fruits of our victory.—Exchange.

The Baton Rouge State Journal is much dissatisfied with the absorption of all Liberals and Reformers by the Democratic party in its recent coalition.

In a paragraph on the attitude it assumes it uses the following emphatic language:

Let the Liberal and Democratic conference committees bear in mind that Louisiana is a Republican State; that it has been made so through sacrifice of blood, of toil, contumely and hardships; and that Republicans will not forego the fruits of their hard-won victory. They desire to give equal rights and advantages to all, but they are determined not to surrender their own. For the general good they will enter into a copartnership with their late political foes, but it must be under Republican leadership. In other words, Republican Louisiana must have a Republican Governor.

The Weekly Union Herald of Shreveport illustrates in the following manner the way our Democratic friends propose to "clasp hands across the bloody chasm." It says:

The Greeley party claims to be the special friend of the colored man, yet the Brookhaven Citizen, a Greeley paper, heads the North Carolina election returns, when it is supposed the State had gone Democratic, as follows: "CROW! WHITE MAX! CROW! WHITE MAX! VICTORY! NEGROES AND CARPET-BAGGERS ROUTED!" &c., &c.

The Dunn Leader of August 31, publishes the restoration of harmony in the Republican party as "GREAT AND GLORIOUS NEWS."

MISSISSIPPI.

Nomination of Hon. John R. Lynch for Congress.

(FROM THE WEEKLY PILOT.)

The nomination of John R. Lynch, Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the Republican candidate from the Sixth District for Congress, which was made on the 28th inst., by the Convention which assembled at Brookhaven, is an event over which all true Republicans will not fail greatly to rejoice. While we would have rendered a cheerful support to either of the honorable gentlemen who were competitors for this nomination, we are free to say that our wishes—which we chance to know were the wishes of two-thirds of the voters in the Sixth District,—could not have been better brought to fruition

GRATIFYING.—We have recently had repeated occasion to applaud the efforts of various Christian denominations to secure for themselves places of worship, seminaries for instruction etc.; but we have not chronicled a more remarkable exhibition of christian zeal on the one hand and liberality on the other than has been displayed by the methodists under the pastoral care of Rev. Dardis. The ladies of the church held a fair in the basement story of their new place of worship in course of construction on Bien-ville street, and for several nights devoted all their time and energies to make it attractive and successful and we are glad to hear that notwithstanding the "tightness" of money especially among the bulk of the supporters and benefactors of such enterprises, there has been a clear gain of about six hundred dollars.

This is doubtless a "very present help," besides being a satisfactory indication of zeal and devotion.

St. James Sentinel, of Sept. 1, hoists the consolidated Republican Electoral and State ticket, and congratulates its readers on the satisfactory adjustment of the difficulties among Republicans.

The Mississippi Pilot, hitherto a weekly, commenced a semi-weekly issue on September 2.

THE DEMOCRATIC HOPE.

Notwithstanding the restoration of unity in the ranks of the Republican party of Louisiana, notwithstanding the repeated refusal of the colored voters, through their representatives, to identify themselves with any party whose success would be calculated to imperil the integrity of Republican doctrines, and the civil and political status of Republicans, the Democrats still hope to divert several thousand colored votes from the support of the Republican ticket, and secure their votes for the McEnery combination. A Mr. P. Richardson in Thursday's Times says:

"There are in the State of Louisiana about ten thousand white voters who are directly connected with negroes as planters, superintendents of plantations, landlords and employers. Now, if each man composing these several classes will select one negro voter and persevereingly persuade and urge him to vote the Greeley-Brown and McEnery-Penn tickets until the election, the State can be carried against the Kellogg-Pinchback coalition."

Intimidation, threat to discharge, and all that sort of thing, are reputed before hand, when every one knows that with the exercise of free agency no considerable number of colored men could be rallied to the support of the Democracy.

Mr. Richardson is a practical man, he doesn't rely much on torch-light processions, speeches and buncombe to accomplish much "with the negroes;" but he feels the double value of not only taking them away from the Republicans, but adding them to the Democrats, and he recommends an appeal to the selfish sordidness of personal immediate hand, to mouth interest to secure his end.

Provided there be no violence, we apprehend but little danger from this project. Colored men have learned enough of politics to know that it is frequently of far more importance to sacrifice personal advantage, ease, and even competence, to the success of principle or party than to be surrounded with them at the expense of the security, the advancement and the general prosperity of a race.

We have repeatedly lamented the complete underestimation of negro capacity and discernment by such men as Mr. Richardson, and we have once more to sigh over this most recent instance of the kind.
No momentary, spasmodic, interested display of solicitude and "best friendship" is sufficient to delude the negro race into the belief that such professions are genuine.

The negro knows what Democracy is, and he has learnt something of Republicanism; if the Democrats, among whom the negroes have certainly been "born and bred," and with whom there are affinities and surroundings calculated to give the Democrats vast advantages over any class of new comers, if they desire to secure negro support they must admit and practice negro civil and political equality, and they must concede to the negro adequate race representation in State, parish, and municipal offices trust. All the voting one way, and all the honors, wealth and emoluments the other is too grossly unfair a distribution for even the negro to approve. Give us fair play, discard all recollection and reference to "the color of our kind," and demonstrate your oblivion of it by practicing your doctrines and it will not belong before Louisiana will start on the road to tranquility and prosperity.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of August 30:

"J. C. Corbin, (colored,) for many years messenger of the Valley Bank, in this city, has been nominated by the Republican State Convention of Arkansas for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Corbin graduated at the Ohio University, and is competent to fill the position."

The Colored Citizen, of Washington, D. C., says, with reference to the same gentleman:

"Among the nominations on the Arkansas Republican State ticket, we notice the name of our old friend, J. C. Corbin, of Little Rock, for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Corbin is an excellent scholar. This is the most solid recognition of the colored man's ability that we have heard anywhere."

Mr. Corbin is an elder brother of our popular fellow townsman, Mr.
Henry A. Corbin.

RATIFICATION.

According to announcement, the Democratic party, aided by the Liberals, adhering to Governor Warmoth, held a meeting in Lafayette square on Thursday evening to ratify the "Fusion Ticket." A number of Democratic clubs turned out, some with torch-lights and some with none, some in excellent order and training, like the "Pendleton Guards," and some just the opposite. Interest, curiosity, the lights, the music and the rocket firing naturally attracted a large crowd, which we estimate at about two thousand, and in due time both stands were fully occupied by the managers of the affair, the representatives of the Press, and a number of others. Speeches were delivered by Col. McEnery, Genl.
G. A. Sheridan, Gov. H. C. War-moth, Judge H. N. Ogden, Col. S.
J. N. Smith, Mr. Farman, Colonel Smith, and others. "The burden of their song" was naturally enough a little inharmonious. The Democrat was restraining himself from demanding more for Democracy, and the Republican trying to keep within bounds in his demands for Republicanism. "All at ease" was evident to any observer and notwithstanding all the "clapping hands" we have witnessed, we are confident the "hands" will have to be let go, and the "chasm" remain if it can only be bridged by the sacrifices and holocausts which are demanded. Gov. Warmoth, the spokesman of his party, made a Liberal speech which met with no sympathy and endorsement from his Democratic coadjutors, except when he said that he was heart and soul with them and their candidates and would do all in his power to aid them in electing their State and National candidates. This is significant as indicating that the Governor is not the interpreter of the sentiments, desires, or intentions of the candidates he is supporting.
Nor does he express the idea they possess and the object they aim at.
He professes openly to desire the improvement and purification of the Republican party, they openly desire the overthrow of radicalism and the rescue of the State from plundering carpet-baggers and ignorant negroes, both of whom they denounce in the very presence and persons of their allies.

The Republican stuck a pin right here yesterday morning. Foreseeing the inevitable contingency about to be forced on the Governor it complains of the ill-treatment by the Democrats and prepares them for the probable withdrawal of the Governor. In the meantime, however, the Governor who knows all this, renews his pledges to aid the "Fusion Ticket," by actively stump-ing the State in its behalf. So we go.

The Grand Era pours out some of its rapid and impotent wrath on our "devoted head," and then funnily proceeds to remind the editor of the Louisianian that he is now the Republican candidate for Superintendent of Education and as such has a reputation to sustain etc.— With many thanks for this reminder, and the tender solicitude of our coterie, we yet have a word to say.
There is much force to be sure in the covert threat at the consequence of offending a voter, and we would not wantonly exasperate one of the sovereigns of the commonwealth. But we can't appease Mr. Bureh's silly animosity, or purchase his tolerance or possibly his support, by cringing servility.

We had a "reputation to sustain" too, many years before our nomination which, by the way is an effect and not a cause.

A word at parting. If Mr. Bureh will persist in periodically making false representations against others, with knowledge of their falseness, and with deliberate and malicious intention to depreciate, he should be the last to so incoherently "equal" at the application of the bird to his own tender places.

Yesterday's dispatches from Monroe report a large, enthusiastic reception to Senator Kellogg, Col.
Lewis, Senator Antoine, and other gentlemen at Monroe La. These gentlemen are out on a brief stump-ing tour.

Vermont has just held her State elections, and the full strength of the Democrats, Liberals and Republicans was brought in the field.
The Republican party has carried the State by over twenty-five thousand majority.

REGISTRATION.

The offices of Registration are now fairly opened and are daily in full blast.

Let every man entitled to cast a vote see that he has his "papers," and has them right. Read the notice of the Registrar elsewhere printed in our paper, and don't fail to comply with its demands. The Republican party is in danger, and expects every man to "do his duty."

The Iberville News contains an interesting leader on the union effect in the ranks of our party and concludes with the following pertinent remarks:

"In hoisting the name of William Pitt Kellogg as our candidate for Governor, instead of that of Hon.
P. B. S. Pinchback, we only obey the behest of a party to which we owe unconditional allegiance. And when we endorse a ticket in which one of the editors of The News gives way to Hon. P. G. Deslonde, in the nomination for Secretary of State, our action can not be attributed to a mercenary motive. Subordinating every consideration to that of the success of the Republican party, we will cheerfully support every compromise based upon that object. To attain that patriotic end, we will not stand in the way ourselves, nor countenance others to do it.

While Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback was our candidate, our voice and pen were raised for him. Availing ourselves of the privileges of journalism, we assailed his opponent with the customary harshness allowed in a political campaign. But while we charged Mr. Kellogg with some short comings, we never denied that he was a life-long Republican. We opposed him in our opposition to the faction which he championed. At the head of a united Republican party, he commands our undivided support.

If there is yet a Pinchback Republican in Louisiana whose orthodoxy prevents him from casting his vote for Wm. Pitt Kellogg, his proper place is in the ranks of the McEnery nullifiers. His longer stay in the Republican party is a detraction to that organization. A moment of serious reflection will convince the most unsophisticated Republican, that in the defeat of Kellogg, and the consequent election of McEnery, all hope of universal liberty in Louisiana, is blasted for years, if not forever. A Democratic victory at this campaign will assure a similar victory in the next.

While we warn our enfranchised citizens to remain faithful to the party to which they owe their liberties, we would not be understood as giving way to any forebodings originating in a doubt that they will discharge their full duty. Let them not forget that it is the urgent wish of Mr. Pinchback, that every vote which should be cast for him, if he were candidate for Governor, shall be cast for William Pitt Kellogg on next November.

WHO INSULTED FRED DOUGLASS?— A SUPPORTER OF GREELEY.—The following is a dispatch from the Washington correspondent of the Evening Post:

"It has been ascertained, upon investigation, that the captain of the Potomac steamer who refused to allow Fred Douglass to dine with the San Domingo Commissioners, is an enthusiastic Democrat, and re-joices over Senator Sumner's letter advising the colored people to vote for Greeley, although he continues to exclude that race from enjoying their civil rights on board his boat."
—New National Era.

WITHOUT LEGS TWELVE HOURS.
At the battle of Wagram, in 1809, a soldier was engaged in the fray the ranks around him were terribly thinned by shot, and at sunset he was nearly isolated. While reloading his musket he was shot down by a cannon ball. His impression was that the ball had passed through his legs, below the separating them from the thighs, for he suddenly sank down, shortened, as he believed The trunk of the body fell backward to the ground, and the senses were completely paralyzed by the shock. Thus he lay, motionless among the wounded and the dead, during the night, not daring to move a muscle lest the loss of blood should be fatally increased. He felt no pain, but this was attributed to the stunning effect of the shock to the brain and the nervous system.
At early dawn he was aroused by one of the surgeons, who came around to help the wounded.

"What's the matter with you, my good fellow?" inquired the surgeon.
"Ah! touch me tenderly," replied the wounded man, "I beseech you; a cannon ball has carried off both my legs."

The surgeon examined the limbs referred to, and then, giving him a good shake, said, with a joyous laugh:
"Get up with you; you have nothing the matter with you."
The man immediately sprang up in utter astonishment, and stood firmly on the legs he thought he had lost forever. He then remarked to the surgeon:

"I had indeed been shot down by the cannon ball; but instead of passing through my legs, as I firmly believed it had, the ball passed under my feet at least a foot in depth, into which my feet instantly sank, giving me the idea that I had been thus shortened by the loss of my legs."

FUSION AND TERMS OF FUSION.

mittees, held this day, the following

ROOMS JOINT SUB-EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, Republican Party of Louisiana, August 29, 1872.

At a meeting of the above Committees, held this day, the following correspondence, etc., was ordered published:

CORRESPONDENCE.

The following letters passed between Col. James Lewis and Lieutenant Governor Pinchback on August 27, the eventful day of the compromise between the two wings of the Republican party.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 27, 1872.
Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback, Lt. Gov. of Louisiana:

Sir—I have just been informed that, in order to reconcile the differences that have unfortunately existed in the Republican party of our State, you have withdrawn as a candidate for Governor, thus uniting all our forces and tending to secure the election of Hon. Wm Pitt Kellogg as Governor, and the noble standard bearers of our party Grant and Wilson.

Believing that such a spirit of self-sacrifice, as by your manifested, should be met with equal magnanimity I therefore hereby withdraw from the position for which I was nominated by the Baton Rouge Convention and also by your Committee as Congressman at large, and trust that you may accept that position, believing that you will have an eye single to the future peace and prosperity of our State.

This State under a Republican Government is my dearest wish, and I shall at all times be found ready and willing to sacrifice any interest of mine to secure that end.

The era of good-will this day inaugurated promises well for the future of our party. With unbroken front and closed ranks we now march forward to glorious victory.
I am sir,
Very respectfully etc.
JAMES LEWIS.

LT. GOV. PINCHBACK TO COL. LEWIS.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 27, 1872.

Hon. James Lewis, Administrator of Police:

DEAR SIR—Your communication of this date has been received and in reply I beg to State that my highest aim has ever been to have Louisiana continue under a republican administration, and believing my candidacy for Governor with another republican ticket in the field, would result in the defeat of both, and place the state in the hands of the Democracy; and finding yourself and others, friends of mine willing to make sacrifice, in order to unify the Republican party, and your committee having tendered our committee terms of compromise which I regarded as a fair recognition of the republicans cooperating with me, and knowing our people desired the party should be united, deemed it my duty to withdraw my name from before the people of Louisiana as a candidate for Governor, believing that by so doing I would secure to both the National and State ticket in the coming election, at least 25,000 majority.

The high compliment you are pleased to extend to me is cordially appreciated and I know that I but express the sentiments of every true republican when I say that your devotion to principle and your disinterestedness in subordinating personal ambition to what you conceive to be the best for success of the Republican Party, State and National, will insure to you high consideration at the hands of the people.

When I concluded not to run for Governor, I also resolved not to accept any nomination in this campaign; but since praiseworthy and the gentlemen comprising both committees thing it advisable to place me in the position so generously declined by you, I am willing to subordinate my personal inclination, and comply with the wishes of yourself and the gentlemen of the committees, and accept the same.

I have the honor, sir, to be,
Yours most obedient servant,
P. B. S. PINCHBACK.

HALL CENTRAL GRANT LABORING MEN'S Club, City of Carrollton, Sept. 3, 1872.— At a regular meeting of the Central Grant Laboring Men's Club of the City of Carrollton, held on the 30th day of August, 1872, the following resolutions, offered by A. N. Soule, Esq., were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, During the deliberations of the Republican Convention, assembled in New Orleans on the 9th inst., presided over by Mr. Hugh J. Campbell, resolutions endorsing U. S. Grant for President and Hon. Henry Wilson for Vice President of the United States, were adopted; and

Whereas, Lieutenant-Governor P. B. S.
Pinchback did surrender all previous personal and political interests with Governor H. C. Warmoth by boldly advocating the necessity of that convention's endorsement of the National Republican ticket, thereby compelling sixty-seven white and (we regret to say) seventeen colored delegates to announce themselves against the Republican party, and having Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, and over one hundred true Republicans in convention assembled, all earnestly desirous of reconciliation between themselves and the National Republican party, whose State Executive Committee is presided over by the Hon.
S. B. Packard; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Central Grant Laboring Men's Club, of the City of Carrollton, Parish of Jefferson, do hereby express our heartfelt gratification at the course of Lieutenant-Governor Pinchback, and those who remained true to him and the Republican party, notwithstanding the powerful influence brought to bear upon them to pursue a different course, and especially at the determined position assumed by the entire delegation from the entire delegation from the left bank of the Parish of Jefferson. Be it further

Resolved, That we, as should the Republicans of the entire State, view the action of Lieut-Governor Pinchback, and those of the convention who remained with him, the first auspicious initiatory step towards harmonizing the Republican party of this State—better sustained by the subsequent action of the convention in authorizing their State Executive Committee to accept resignations and fill vacancies that might occur, and in the pledge each nominee to withdraw, if necessary, for unity.
Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the National Republican and the Weekly Louisianian.

T. A. MARTIN, Acting Secretary.

A young lady recently wrote to H. G., asking him for the best remedy for dandruff. He replied by saying, "Go West, young woman, go West, and apply to some frisky tribe of Indians. They remove dandruff by a simple remedy and warrant it never to return."

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE

American People

OF THE INTRODUCTION

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE

UNITED STATES OF

Dr. G. Collette's

CELEBRATED EUROPEAN

RENOVED ALTERNATIVE PILLS

The success of which in England, France,

Germany, Austria and Prussia is unprecedented, having entirely superseded all magnesias, salts, seltzers, oils, etc., of every description, and are universally acknowledged to be the most effective and agreeable Pur-gative ever yet introduced.

Dr. Collette has just completed arrangements to supply the people in America with his valuable Pills, and to prevent any imitation, he manufactures them at his Central Depot, No. 32 Carondelet street, New Orleans, where orders are already pouring in from all parts of the country. Dr. Collette, to assure the people that his

ALTERNATIVE PILLS

are not gotten up on speculation and never yet tried, would state that he is a graduate member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, and during his extensive practice for the last twenty-five years in Europe, has abundantly proved some medicine which would come within the reach of all, and which would effectually cure a large number of complaints so general, and for the want of articles of this kind generally goes neglected until the health is impaired and undermined and the constitution distressed. He, therefore, has tried these effectively in Europe for the last fifteen years, with the most satisfactory results, and the success has been so complete, that it has astonished even himself, and surpassed his most sanguine expectations. One or two boxes save hundreds of dollars in doctors' fees every year in curing the following complaints, which are at the foundation of all diseases:

If your blood is rancid or vitiated, purify it with

DR. COLLETTE'S ALTERNATIVE PILLS.

If your skin is diseased and you are covered with pimples, boils, blotches, old sores, scurvy or scurf,

will remove and cure them all.

If you are worse, and have Ulcers, Cancer or Tumors, the effect is magical and the cure complete in taking

DR. COLLETTE'S ALTERNATIVE PILLS.

If your Liver is sluggish and you are enfer

PROSPECTUS OF THE LOUISIANIAN.

In the endeavor to establish another Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the LOUISIANIAN, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfully felt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due; it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the LOUISIANIAN a desideratum in these respects.

POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the LOUISIANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances." We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit them.

Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all interests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and indiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenue, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obligation.

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the security and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, manly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to rescue our paper, from an ephemeral, and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE BALANCE WHEEL

WALTHAM WATCH

4 times a second,
240 times a minute, 14,400 times an hour, 345,600 times a day, 292,00 times a week, 10,368,000 times a month, 124,440,000 times a year.

MORE IS EXPECTED OF A WATCH

THAN ANY OTHER KIND

OF MACHERY.

It must not only run all day, but all night; not only on weekdays, but on Sundays and Holidays. It must run hanging up or lying down—upside down or right side up. It must keep running when the wearer sits down or stands up. When he walks or rides. In fact, it is expected to do its duty at all times, in every place and in every position.

A Genuine Waltham Watch

will fulfil all these requirements. I would once a day, it will faithfully tick for you a hundred and twenty-six million times in a year, without even requiring fresh oil all that time.

CONTAINS

5 Spring, 9 wheels, 51 Screws, and 36 other parts making altogether 136 separate pieces.

ALL GENUINE WALTHAM

Watches have seven

Jewels.

THE EXTRA JEWELLED HAVE ELEVEN JEWELS
THE FULL JEWELLED HAVE FIFTEEN JEWELS.

Every part of a Waltham Watch is made by machinery. The machinery used in making the movement of a single watch costs over a Hundred Thousand Dollars, yet we sell these Watches, in a solid Silver Hunting Case, for $18. The same watch could not be made by hand and finished as perfectly for TEN TIMES as much.

is interchangeable, like a Springfield rifle that is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheels, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by putting these parts together again, without any reference to their former combination. This is a
